Ein Berg unter Eis

1. Hütte

A person wearing a red jacket and a purple beanie is looking at a water tap on a metal structure. The tap is partially frozen, and a small metal cup is placed under it. A larger metal container is also visible on the structure. The background shows a snowy or icy environment.

A photograph of a crowded wooden dining hall. In the foreground, a man wearing a grey t-shirt, dark pants, and a black cap is walking towards the right, holding a black jacket. The room is filled with people sitting at long wooden tables, some eating. The walls are made of wood, and there are several windows. A striped blanket is visible in the bottom foreground. The text "willst Du nicht hier mit 60 Pers. schlafen..." is overlaid on the left side of the image.
